A PLEASANT GARDEN PARTY.

Policeman Iwiena Kills a Chinaman in Trying to Arrest Him—Death of Thomas W. Everett—People of Island Object to Landing Chinese Laborers.

MAUI, Sept. 5th.—The Haiku garden party which occurred during the evening of August 30th, on the grounds of H. P. Baldwin, was a most brilliant and successful event. Surrounding a pretty dell were booths of various colors and designs, huge Japanese umbrellas with tete-tete tables, and the quaint little stage imaginable with its green curtain stretched between two royal palms. A myriad of colored lights twinkling here and there amid the foliage, shed soft lustre upon the scene. A large audience of natives and foreigners appreciated a pleasing program which consisted of vocal and instrumental music and an exhibition of wax works. C. H. Dickey acted the part of the lecturer, Dickens, showing to the public, wax models of some of the most famous characters in his novels. F. E. Atwater merits special mention for his assumption of the character of the immortal Pickwick and Miss Richards' negro melodies to the accompaniment of the banjo, were much applauded. Misses Millie Beckwith and Hattie Watson presided at the candy and lemonade tables, Misses King and Minnie Baldwin at the flower stand, Misses Aiken and May Baldwin at the souvenir booth, Mrs. Dickey dispensed coffee and sandwiches, and Mrs. H. G. Alexander had charge of the post office most conspicuous with its red, white and blue bunting. One hundred and forty-five dollars, a much larger sum than was anticipated, was raised for the benefit of native Sunday schools and other charities. The Ladies' Aid Society is to be congratulated on the success of their entertainment.

On Sunday afternoon, August 25th, a mass meeting of prominent citizens of Wailuku and Makawao districts was held at Wailuku court house to consider ways and means against a possible cholera epidemic. After sundry speeches by Drs. Aiken, Armitage and Raymond the following sanitary committee was chosen by the fifty or sixty gentlemen present: Dr. Armitage and Messrs. Chillingworth, Friel, Carter and Campbell for Wailuku; Messrs. Maynard and C. B. Miles for Kahului; Dr. Raymond and Messrs. D. Center and George Rudolph for Spreckelsville; and Dr. P. J. Aiken and Messrs. H. P. Baldwin, James Anderson, C. H. Dickey and W. H. King for Makawao. L. von Tempky was afterwards appointed to look out for the Kula section. S. F. Chillingworth presided at the meeting which continued from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m.

During Saturday night, August 24th, between 8 and 9 o'clock Henry Iwiena, a Wailuku policeman, shot and killed a Chinaman named Ah Quai at Camp 3, Spreckelsville. Several days previously Ah Quai had been a witness in an opium-in-possession case which was tried in Wailuku. Deputy Sheriff Carter directly after the trial swore out a warrant against Ah Quai for perjury, but before the paper could be served the Chinaman escaped and hid in the cane for four or five days. It was while serving the warrant during the night of the 24th that Iwiena shot Ah Quai who was again trying to escape. Iwiena has waived examination and has been committed for trial.

During the past week or more, people on the plantations, ranches and in fact everybody has been busy disinfecting their premises. The Wailuku committee has caused one plank of the sidewalk all along Market street to be taken up and brought to light all manner of filth, "everything except a dead baby," as one of the committee remarked. Market street leads through the Chinese settlement.

Fred S. Armstrong is chief inspector of laborers' quarters on Pala plantation.

In case of cholera Wailuku people will use for a hospital the old "small pox" pest house erected in '81. This building is situated near the beach, between Kahului and Wailuku.

Makawao people will place their hospital on the southwestern boundary of Grove ranch.

Ex-Governor Thomas W. Everett died at his residence in Walkap yesterday, the 4th inst., at 5:30 p. m. Mr. Everett has been a most prominent citizen of Maui for many years. He was Deputy Sheriff and Sheriff for more than forty years, and Governor of the island for several years. He was born in Boston, November 4, 1822, and during his residence of forty or fifty years on Maui has always been most highly esteemed for his honest and upright character. Professor Everett of Harvard College is his cousin. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 p. m.

Three of the Mauao Seminary teachers and a number belonging to Government schools are detained in Honolulu.

Deputy Sheriff Carter, in the absence of Sheriff L. A. Andrews in Honolulu, is acting as the chief executive officer of the island.

During Thursday, August 29th, the steamers Mokoli and Kilauea Hou arrived in Kahului, the former bringing the mail and the latter 100 Chinese laborers. These Chinamen came on the ill-fated Belgic and were imported by Awa for work on Spreckelsville plantation. The authorities at first denied them the privilege of landing at Kahului, but finally permitted them to come ashore without any luggage. Since then they have been quarantined at Camp 4, Spreckelsville. The people of Maui have been most uneasy since the arrival of the Belgic's passengers, and would have been better satisfied if the celestials had been immediately sent back to Honolulu.

No. 1 flour is selling in some stores at $2 a bag. This acts harshly with the poor native, for recently he has been compelled to use flour for poi instead of taro. In Makawao a barrel of poi is now worth $3.25, while formerly it was sold for $1.50. In case of a famine Maui has Kula beef, corn and potatoes to draw on.

During Tuesday evening, August 27th, Misses Richards and Greene gave a most successful concert in the Paia foreign church.

The alligator pear crop is a large one this year for Wailuku. The Queen and the St. Julien are the vessels still in Kahului harbor. It is said that the bark St. Julien draws more water than any vessel that has ever entered Kahului.

Weather—Light rains in Wailuku and Makawao.

Unhappy Kau District.

A correspondent writing from Kau states that unless provisions arrive soon there will be a famine. The residents of the district do not approve of Deputy Sheriff Williams' action. The writer also states that Hilo people threaten to put guards at the Volcano House if Kau does not cut off communication with Kona.

Feeding the Poor.

The Ladies' Hawaiian Relief Committee is doing most creditable work in the line of providing food for destitute natives. Their headquarters are directly back of Castle & Cooke's store on Bethel street. Saturday and Sunday the ladies were kept very busy, 1136 and 1138 natives respectively being provided for.

Persons having empty lard or other tin containers will confer a great favor on the Hawaiian Relief committee by leaving same at the kitchen, Bethel street, in rear of Castle & Cooke's store.

Scrofula

The Worst Case the Doctors Ever Saw

Hood's Sarsaparilla Perfectly Cured

"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Dear Sirs:—I wish to testify to the great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla. For some time I had been troubled with scrofula, which early last winter assumed a very bad form.

Sores appeared on my face and hands and gradually increased in number until they reached to my shoulder. The doctors said it was the worst case of scrofula they ever saw and also went so far as to say it was incurable. I tried ointments and other remedies but to no avail. A friend recommended Hood's

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Sarsaparilla, and although I was completely discouraged, as a last chance I resolved to give it a trial. After taking one bottle I noticed the sores had commenced to heal. After the sixth bottle

They Were All Healed. I continued to take it, however, until I had used nine bottles, and now I am perfectly well."
